

Responsible Debt Relief Institute

FOR YOUR EYES ONLY:

Accessing and Understanding Your Personal Credit Report

Upon obtaining your free personal credit report from one of the three credit reporting agencies (Experian, TransUnion, Equifax) via the www.creditcardnation.com portal, please summarize your findings by answering the questions below. Remember, you're able to access your free credit report at www.annualcreditreport.com and you can access your FREE credit report once a year from each of the 3 reporting agencies.

[1] EASE OF ACCESS.

What information was required to retrieve your personal credit report?

Did you have any problems?

How confident are you regarding the security of your personal financial information?

[2] CONTENT.

What personal information is reported?

What credit information is reported?

What information did you NOT understand?

[3] ACCURACY.

Is there any information that you were surprised was included in your report?

Did you find any errors?

Is there any information that is missing?

Do you know how to correct errors in your credit report?